

Why support the capitalist institutions that oppress your veggies?

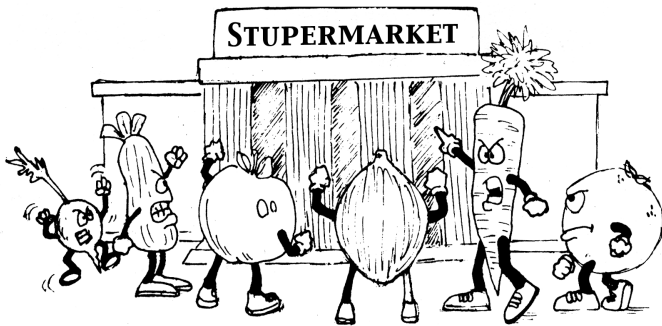

The best specials at the supermarket are in the dumpster

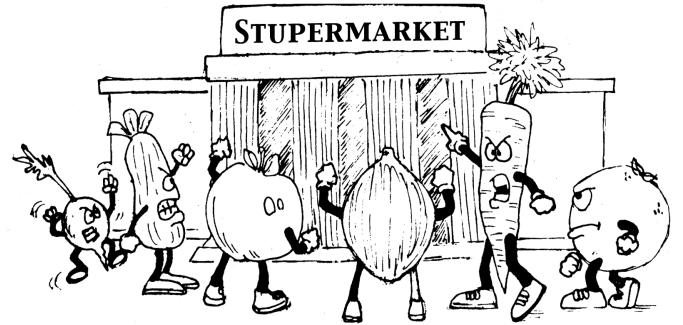

Why settle for stupormarket fluoro lights when you can get hugs at the food co-op?

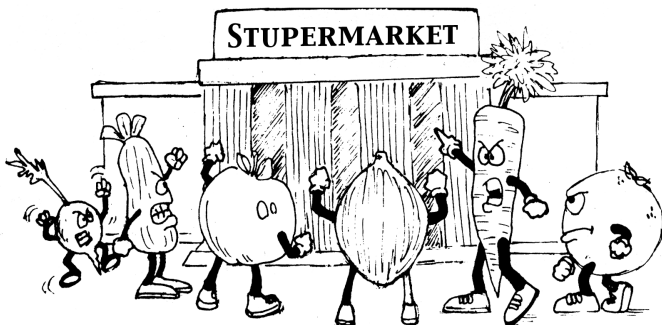

Globetrotting veggies increase climate change. Reduce food miles & buy local

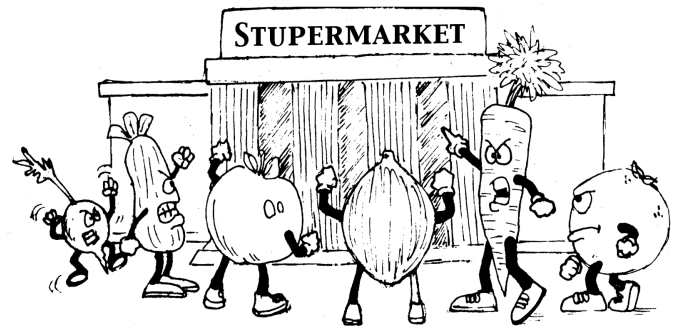

Did peas really grow in the freezer? Did milk really come out of cows in a carton?

Support local growers not multinationals. Buy at farmer's markets

Keep your fruit & veggies happy & free of chemicals – buy organic

Resist the globalized neoliberal economy. Support your food co-op
